Dear CCLCS Families

I hope you all had a chance to relax this weekend and reflect upon the great sacrifices that some of our fellow citizens have made for our country. I had the chance to visit my parents' and my father-in-law's graves at the Bourne National Cemetery and thank them for their service. I always make it a point when I visit to stop by a few graves of service members who were killed in action and think about all that they gave up for the rest of us. It seemed extra poignant this year. Their example inspired me to understand that we are all connected, and that if their loved ones could endure their enormous sacrifice, then I can certainly do my part to make it through this current state of affairs.

In normal times, the post-Memorial Day academic calendar represents a frenzied sprint of activities towards the finish line. Although this year is decidedly different, we are working hard to preserve many of the traditions that make our community special. Keep your eye out for information about this year's Walk for Water. The exciting news is that the opportunity to participate is being extended beyond the 6th grade to include all CCLCS students and alumni. Even though school is physically shut down, there is no limit to the good that we can do together! Seventh and 8th graders should be heading towards the finish line by completing some of the school's iconic character-building project work. I know that I have been inspired by the 8th graders to work on my own Body Biology project as a way to stay mentally and physically fit, and I can't wait to see some of the personal essays come off the presses!

Families should also know that we are working hard on a closing ceremony to honor our 8th graders. Look for information on the details of that to come out soon. In addition, the School Reopening Task Force has its first meeting tomorrow. An eager group of staff and CCLCS Board members is working to put the procedures and resources in place to ensure that school in the fall is the best that it can be.

Stay Safe

Paul Niles

Director Evaluation Survey - Last Thursday we sent an email to our families with a link to the annual Director Evaluation Survey, which takes just a few minutes to complete. Please take the time to fill out the survey so that your voice will be heard by the Board of Trustees.

The LINK to the survey is here: <https://forms.gle/wrmEAyA6bjXdjZwK8>. Please complete the survey by Thursday, May 28th at 4 p.m. If you have any questions or do not receive the survey please contact Sallie Probolus at sprobolus@cclcs.info. Your participation in this process is greatly valued and appreciated. Thank you.

PRIVATE CCLCS YOGA CLASS

Molly Pelletier, a local yoga instructor, has created a private Yoga Core class for CCLCS! The class is an all-levels yoga and pilates fusion, focusing on improving fitness, and building strength in the core and hips in order to prevent injury. No experience necessary! Molly also teaches FREE yoga classes on her Instagram (@zucchini.who), as well as her YouTube Channel. Here's to the CCLCS yoga link: <https://youtu.be/9Jmr9NS1UNM>

CAPE COD CHOKERS HAS TEAMED UP WITH CCLCS AND WE CAN!!

100% goes to WE CAN to support local women on the Cape! Students from grade 6th - 8th learn about self-branding or personal branding. A form of marketing that an individual uses to create a uniform public image that demonstrates their values and overall reputation. This branding form is a growing trend not only among celebrities but also among micro-influencers, we see on social media platforms like Instagram and snap chat.

Check it out: <https://capecodchokers.com/blog/2020/3/16/girl-boss>
